February 12, 2015

Hi Folks

February is a busy month. We held a 3D shoot last weekend. There were 33 shooters and it all went very well. The 21st and 22nd we will be hosting the NFAA sectional tournament. Friday night there will be a practice round as well. Then on the 27th, 28th of February and the 1st of March we will host the ISAA State Indoor Tournament. Both these shoots have been good for the club. We will need help in preparation as well as running both tournaments and the kitchen. We want the facility to look nice with shooters attending from throughout the state and region.

We will be rebuilding bales before the Midwest Sectional. We have had difficulty obtaining the material as Delta no longer will supply it. We are planning a workday on Saturday the 14th at 9AM to rebuild the bales. Most of you are aware of the condition of our bales and will benefit from fixing them. We will need your help to get it done.

Blake McDonnell found a source of cardboard for us. That is a huge help as companies have been recycling cardboard and it has been difficult to obtain. Don Kaplan and Don Parker have also been picking up cardboard from the sources we have and bringing it to the club. We will be changing cardboard when we rebuild the bales so please leave the large sheets till we are ready to do this. Thank you to Don, Don and Blake.

We are considering having an adult coaching session for beginning and intermediate archers. Vance Patrilla has said that he is willing to do this. We would consider a Saturday in March or April or a Friday evening if that would work better. We would like to have at least 5 or 6 people interested in the classes in order to have them. If you are interested please contact me and let me know.

Dues are due now for the new year. Locks will be changed after February so please bring your payments in to the February meeting. If you cannot make a meeting you will need to arrange to come get keys from Don Parker when they are available.

So anyway, good shooting and I hope to see you out there.

Carl Mally

Joke of the Month

A man was sentenced to prison and is spending his first night. He is alone and afraid when he hears someone down the cellblock holler out, "38", and the whole block erupts in laughter. Next someone else calls out, "46" bringing even more laughter. So he asks the prisoner in the next cell what's going on, and the other guy says, "Well most of us have been here so long we have heard all of the jokes. So we gave all the jokes a number. When we want to tell a joke, we just call out a number." The new guy wants to fit in, so he calls out, "94". There is dead silence. He says, "94" once again bringing more dead silence. He asks the guy in the next cell, "Hey, what's wrong? I call out a number, and nobody laughed." The guy in the next cell told him, "Well, it's all in how you tell it."
