

President's Corner

January 3, 2015

Hi Folks

Leagues start this week. Sunday afternoon at 4 PM (January 4) we start our traditional league for longbow and recurve shooters. Then Tuesday at 7PM we start the Indoor 2D Bowhunter league. Finally, on Thursday at 7 PM the 300 Round Target league starts. I would encourage new shooters to join in one or more of these as a chance to get familiar with shooting and to make friends in the club. There is no minimum skill level required and scores are handicapped so everyone has a chance to win. This is really one of the best ways to get value from being part of the archery club.

On January 10th we are planning to have a Lancaster style Advanced Vegas Tournament. It will be a double elimination tournament so you will shoot twice in one day. We have never done this before though they have been held in a couple of other places in the state. The people taking part have really enjoyed them so come on out and try it. There should be some serious shooters there and it will be a chance to test your skill.

There will be an Indoor 3D January 25. So if you are getting tired of sitting around the house at that point show up and have some fun.

As always we can use kitchen and registration help at the shoots.

Dues are due now for the new year. Locks will be changed after February so please bring your payments in to the January or February meeting. If you cannot make a meeting you will need to arrange to come get keys from Don Parker when they are available.

I will be reminding everyone periodically through the year that several of us currently holding office are going to not be running again next year. Start to think about whether you would be interested in helping in one of the officer positions next year. If you have questions about what is involved please ask and one of us will be glad to give you some explanation. It is important for the club to have people in these positions and they are a good chance to get to know people and do something of value. All of those in the positions have enjoyed them but have been doing it three or more years. It will be time for new ideas and faces to keep the club alive and growing. So please give some thought to it between now and September.

So anyway, good shooting and I hope to see you out there.

Carl Mally

Joke of the Month

A fifteen year old Amish boy and his father were in a mall. They were amazed by almost everything they saw, but especially by two shiny, silver walls that could move apart and then slide back together again. The boy asked, "What is this Father?"

The father (never having seen an elevator) responded, "Son, I have never seen anything like this in my life, I don't know what it is."

While the boy and his father were watching with amazement, a fat old lady in a wheel chair moved up to the moving walls and pressed a button. The walls opened, and the lady rolled between them into a small room. The walls closed, and the boy and his father watched the small numbers above the walls light up sequentially. They continued to watch until it reached the last number, and then the numbers began to light in the reverse order.

Finally the walls opened up again and a gorgeous 24-year-old blond stepped out.

The father, not taking his eyes off the young woman, said quietly to his son... "Go get your Mother."
