

President's Corner

Nov 8, 2013

Hi Folks,

A few things coming up. We will have a Vegas shoot next Sunday at 1 PM on the Indoor Range at the Club. Hope to see a few of you there.

And on December 7 we will have an Indoor 3D followed by an Open House and the annual Chili Cookoff. There will be door prizes and a give away of the big stuffed dog on the range. So come on out, enter your chili and have fun.

There is a note elsewhere about Marv's Animal Challenge. We are doing well on it with over $1300 for animals next year.

Speaking of animals, our survey regarding use of 2D or 3D targets for indoor tournaments this winter came up fairly evenly split. We will discuss it and take a vote at the next club meeting.

We are getting gravel in place and forms finished for the handicapped parking spot but it will probably be poured in the spring. We will be getting a load of gravel for the parking and road also thanks to donations.

Please remind any of your friends who have not renewed their membership to please do so. And if you have any other friends who might be interested encourage them to come out and join.

Hunting has been kind of weak this year, only seeing a few though there are scrapes out there.

So anyway, good shooting and I hope to see you at the club.

Carl Mally

A Message from Marv Findley:

At the Rendevous Shoot I started a challenge to all members. I donated $100.00 dollars to be used for 3D animal purchase only. When I left to go back to work there were 4 others that had accepted the challenge. I would like you to post a piece in the Shavings to see if others will also accept the challenge and donate for 3D animals. We are to the point that we have an opportunity to bring our shoot numbers up which will really help. All donations are to be directed to Don Parker, Treasurer.

Joke of the Month

One day an old German Shepherd starts chasing rabbits and, before long, discovers that he's lost. Wandering about, he notices a panther heading rapidly in his direction with the intention of having lunch. The old German shepherd thinks, "Oh, oh! I'm in a tight spot now!" Noticing some bones on the ground close by, he immediately settles down to chew on the bones with his back to the approaching panther. Just as the big cat is about to pounce, the old German shepherd exclaims loudly, "Boy, that was one delicious panther! I wonder if there are any more around here?" Hearing this, the young panther halts his attack. A look of terror comes over him and he slinks away into the trees. "Whew!" says the panther. "That was close! That old German shepherd nearly had me!" Meanwhile, a squirrel who had been watching the whole scene from a nearby tree, figures he can put this knowledge to good use and trade it for protection from the panther. So off he goes. The squirrel soon catches up with the panther, spills the beans and strikes a deal for himself with the panther. The young panther is furious at being made a fool of and says, "Here, squirrel, hop on my back and see what's going to happen to that conniving canine!" Now, the old German shepherd sees the panther coming with the squirrel on his back and thinks, "What am I going to do now?" Instead of running, the dog sits down with his back to his attackers, pretending he hasn't seen them yet, and just when they get close enough to hear, the German shepherd says, "Where's that squirrel? I sent him off an hour ago to bring me another panther!" The moral of the story . . . don't mess with old dogs. Age and skill will always overcome youth and treachery! BS and brilliance only come with age and experience. Submitted by Marv Findley
