I would like to thank the new members that have been waiting to join are club and welcome them to the club. Its been a long time waiting to start the reopening our club. I would also like to thank the members and the rest of the board for helping out providing a place to shoot during these tuff times.

Don't forget to Support Our Iowa Archery Clubs, all archery clubs need the archery community to support our Iowa Clubs for us to be successful. I have provided additional pages to show which clubs are having shoots . Please contact the clubs to make sure they are having their shoots. More information on page 3.

Thank you.
